Some nouns may have multiple collective nouns so the teacher will want to expose students to the ones used in this game prior to playing the game.

How To Play:

Pass out one card to each student. The student with the “go” card begins the game by reading his/her card. The student holding the card with the answer to the question on the first card will then read his/her card. The game continues until play returns to the student with the “go” card.
